NO. CR06-307 RSM

ORDER CONTINUING
TRIAL DATE

THIS MATTER comes before the Court upon a joint motion by the United States and the defendants for a continuance of the trial date. Having considered the entirety of the records and file herein, and having held a status conference on November 8, 2006, the Court rules as follows:

Order Continuing Trial Date - 1
Nguyen, et al./CR06-307 RSM

UNITED STATES ATTORNEY
700 Stewart Street, Suite 5220
Seattle, Washington 98101-1271
(206) 553-7970

1 The ends of justice served by the granting of a continuance outweigh the best
 2 interests of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial. This case is unusually
 3 complex, and all parties request a continuance to allow additional time to prepare for
 4 trial. The investigation involved the court-authorized interception of several telephones,
 5 and over 20 search warrants. Most of the intercepted calls were in Vietnamese. The 6 discovery is extensive. The Indictment charges three different conspiracy counts against
 7 14 defendants, and additional defendants are charged in related cases. The government
 8 intends to seek a superseding indictment. Most of the defendants are in custody, which 9 complicates attorney-client conferences, and several do not speak English, making it
 10 necessary for counsel to schedule an interpreter when they meet with their clients. The 11 defendants have agreed to waive their speedy trial rights.

12 The court finds that the time period between the filing of this motion and the new
 13 trial date is excludable time under the Speedy Trial Act, Title 18 U.S.C. §3161.

14 Trial of this matter is continued until April 23, 2007. Motions shall be due no
 15 later than March 15, 2007.

16 DATED this 15 day of November, 2006.
